I HEARD THE BELLS

Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, best known as America's Poet, leads a comfortable and enviable life, until, not unlike his fellow citizens, the Civil War starts tearing the nation apart.

Greif not only envelopes the country, but Longfellow's home and heart. Just when all seems bleak and lost, the sound of Christmas Bells stir Longfellow's heart and pen!

Join us December 3rd at 1pm for I Heard the Bells, the true story of America's favorite Carol.

This film runs 1hr 50mins

Popcorn will be available.

This event is FREE!

THE SEVEN HUSBANDS OF EVELYN HUGO

A fading Hollywood Starlet, Evelyn Hugo, has decided it's time for her to tell all memoir, and the not so hot journalist, Monique is the perfect person to tell her story to. As Evelyn's story unfolds, Monique sees a clear connection between her and Evelyn in an unexpected tragic way.

Join Book Club, Wednesday, December 11th at 1pm for a lively discussion of The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo by Taylor Jenkins Reid.

Interested, but don't have the book? No worries! A copy is waiting for you at the Ashwaubenon Branch Library. Just ask the front desk!

12 DAYS OF TUDOR CHRISTMAS

Christmas is a time full of traditions. We all have them and look forward to them every year. From putting up stockings to holly, Christmas is full of traditions!

Have you ever wondered how these traditions started? What are the 12 days of Christmas? Would we recognize Christmas 500 years ago?

Join Lucy on her tour back in time, to Tudor England, as she explores all this and more, Friday, December 20th at 9:30am, 12 Days of Tudor Christmas.

Donuts & coffee will be available.

This film runs 55mins.

This event is FREE!
